Note From Owner

"We've enjoyed living here since 2001, over which time our family has changed from one newborn to two fully-grown adults. The location is great for transport and shopping, plus many excellent independent cafes, pubs and restaurants. It's about as close as you can get to the open spaces of Wanstead Flats, too.

The Bushwood area has a strong sense of community, with a very active and inclusive residents' association - we'll be chatting with friends and neighbours pretty much every time we spend a few minutes out on the streets.

It's really unusual for an end-of-terrace to have all of these windows - having so much natural light is a big bonus, and the house keeps cool in summer as they're mostly north-facing. None of the three bedrooms have any adjoining walls in common, meaning that we all get a good level of privacy."
